

Burners

Bespoke designs for any application

Burners from 10 mm to 10 meters in length are available from Aerogen in the form of both standard and bespoke designs for any application ranging from flame treatment, heating treating, drying and curing. Burners are available in both air blast and natural draft format offering with a wide range of energy outputs.

Aerogen also specialize in offering the mandatory automatic flame safety controls required for safely igniting and running an industrial gas burner and also customized valve trains allowing for optimum flame control;. Aerogen also offer bespoke control loop circuits to offer optimum process control and automatic feedback and control of the flame to ensure the highest levels of productivity and repeatability whatever the process.

Applications:

- Flame treatment, Baking, Curing, Flame Conditioning
- Suitable for use with natural; gas town gas and LPG
- Individually designed and thermally rated

Features:

- Bespoke burner designs
- Ribbon pack style burner porting
- Accurate flame structure
- Excellent flame stability.
- Forced Draft
- Naturally aspirated

